Newsletter

Welcome to the latest Martians Reunited newsletter.

This month we are delighted to note that membership numbers passed 3,500. We represent around 45 nationalities and current members - two thirds of whom are former associates and one-third current associates - range in age from 21 to 86. Please do check the New Members page every now and then to see who else has joined - and please do forward your newsletters to others if you think they might be interested in joining.

NOTE: Please log on to www.martiansreunited.com before you click on any of the links in this newsletter. It will save you time, as you will then get straight through to the items you are looking for.

News

News items this month include:

- An invitation to the Mars France Reunion weekend in Paris for members and their families
- An item about the Wrigley Foundation's 2 year partnership with Save the Children, which will operate in Kenya, China, Tajikistan, Vietnam, Indonesia and the Philippines
- The appointment of world rice expert David Mackill to Mars Food, based in Rancho Dominguez, Calif. David will be establishing a global research network to support improved rice production and breeding.

Other content

We have been adding to the Picture galleries - although the latest one - favourite product ads from the past - for some reason best known to itself only seems to navigate backwards (try the arrow to the left of the picture to scroll through the pictures).

If you have any copies of favourite Mars adverts, or if you know anyone who could help us add to the collection, please do let us know - or even scan any you may have and email them over? - as always, please, to Editor@martiansreunited.com.

There are some very interesting contributions from members this month, which include:

- An article by Sam Turner about alligators (in this case those creatures which hang around in swamps distracting people from good quality processes)
- a former Petcare associate, who prefers to remain anonymous (at least when writing about his volunteer work) has sent a fascinating piece about his work with the ambulance service
- an article from David Drennan about the hows and whys of developing Employee Engagement.

And, while on the subject of Employee Engagement, we have also for you a link to a recent McKinsey Quarterly article about employee retention at times of organisational change.

Many thanks to the members who help us by contributing ideas, articles and photos - much appreciated and please keep them coming!

have a good month
best wishes
